

Burlingame Fan Says Cammozzi Is Not Unpopular

Prompted to comment on the apparent unpopularity of Gene Cammozzi, pitcher of the Burlingame team, Blaine, of the merry "razz-tan," handed the big southpaw each time he appears on the "p" field. "Second Bounce" is today advised that Cammozzi is not unpopular in Burlingame, but that the "razz-tan" is, probably an attempt on the part of the "p" fans to "get the goat" of Cammozzi. Following the war, he took to the sporting department, in which he from a Philadelphia fan, which is from Philadelphia.

"Burlingame," said Tompkins, Editor San Mateo Daily News, Editor San Mateo Daily News, Editor San Mateo Daily News, Editor San Mateo Daily News, Editor San Mateo Daily News.

With reference to your "Second Bounce" of yesterday's date, in which the statement is made that the fans of Burlingame made Blaine a goat, I am sorry to say that I am unable to comment on it.

I believe you know the Burlingame baseball team. When Gene Cammozzi is pitching against the local team, the local fan will try to "get the goat," but I can assure you the Burlingame fan, has not forgotten in the world for Gene Cammozzi, both as a Burlingame fan and as a fan of the Burlingame team.

I. C. BARD.

VENGEANCE IS SWEET

After losing a 14-inning game to Lansdale last Sunday, 7 to 6, the Ellery Arms team played a return game with Lansdale July 4, rounding them by the score of 9 to 1. Cammozzi twirled fine ball for the winners, allowing only two runs, two hits, and one walk in a 9-inning contest.

By defeating the homecoming of Oakland, the Crystal Club of San Francisco won their thirteenth consecutive game. The team, managed by Gene Cammozzi, formed the better. Their career work has added the Crystal Club to the following players are also wearing in nice style for the Crystal Club: Wolf, Popolano, Kerr, and Gravelle. Wolf, Popolano, Kerr, and Gravelle are also wearing in nice style for the Crystal Club and are anxious to play any fast city or country team.

Myerford Brown entered the box in the second game himself in a desperate heroic head-on charge. Both of the other know that his arm was not fish, but as seen as Kellerman and Fothergill had collected swiftness off his famous hook, he carried over the burden to Cammozzi again. Cammozzi, Kerr, and Kerr finished the evening and ninth, finishes for the young left hander from California.

"Home Run" Gene Paddock Cammozzi must be with the San Mateo Blues next season. If Miller Huggins ever hears of Cammozzi's smacking ability he'll hire him and can "Babe" Ruth.