

Three Teams Tied In the Midwinter League Kog Race

Sunday's play between the Jeffersons and Federals at the benefit game for Tony Merrler resulted in three teams being tied for first place. President McCormick of the Midwinter League, at Tuesday's meeting, appointed Kog, in that his team, the Southern Vets, was the favorite. On Saturday the Federals' Manager De Martini protested, saying that the Valls were out of the league's play. The schedule for Sunday follows: Federal vs. Vets, North Beach Federal vs. Jeffersons vs. American Barbers & 2:30 P. M.

Both games to be played at South Beach. Should the Valls beat the Federals, the championship would be decided between the Jeffersons and Eagles.

The knot which has held Grant Brothers and J. H. Newbarners together for almost the entire race will be untied today. The two teams will meet for the first time during the season in the final game of the triple bill. Both have set a cyclonic pace in this division and entered the race as the favorites. Grant Brothers will use Gene Camozzi, conceded to be the best southpaw in the bushes, on the mound, and Vic Johnson will act in a like capacity for Kennedy's team.

At the party Graham's request the Oakland Athletics will work Equiano in the afternoon. Graham wants to head team and fans to see Equiano and if he is right they will have the same chance as a team of extras and cast and with a catcher like Dooly handling him.

At North Beach grounds—Don A. Lee, manager, North Beach, 8-82 (eleven in nine); North Beach, Fonseca and Stafford; Camozzi and Hickey.

On July 25 Lefty Camozzi of Terre Haute pitched both games at Backlund. He blanked his opponents in the first game, but was beaten 1 to 0 in the second.

Gene Camozzi had the Cotton Mills nine spellbound with his magic slants. He allowed but three hits and retired eleven batters on strikes. Both teams played superbly in the field, the Golden Eagles misplaying three times and the visit-
