In one of the best played games of the year the Redwood Sperrys again defeated the Campbell Athletics yesterday by the score of 3 to 2. The game was featured by many good plays and some tight situations which brought the hearts of fans to their mouths. The game started like a slug fest, but both pitchers settled down after the first inning and from then on it was pitcher's battle with the odds slightly in favor of Camozzi, who allowed six hits, walked five and fanned eleven. Paul allowed eight hits and fanned four.

Redwood made four errors against Campbell's four, the latter's boots being more disastrous, however. Earned runs would have made the game result 1 to 0 for the locals. The game play by play:

By JOHN E. ARNOLD

By his performance on Sunday, Camozzi fooled all the second guessers. The all-wise gentry who were quick to sound Gene's funeral dirge immediately after the lambasting the Bees handed him in the opening tilt are now skulking down back alleys.

All the portly San Mateo gentleman did Sunday was to whiff 11 and permit four widely scattered bingles. Not a bad record for a man who was supposed to be tottering on the brink of senile decay.

SAN MATEO IN VICTORY

The Blues of San Mateo captured their first game of the season by trouncing the Lodi aggregation, 8 to 3.

Gene Camozzi twirled stellar ball for the Blues. He allowed only six hits and fanned 11. His teammates pounded Tim Buckley and "Spec" Shea for 13 bingles, Eddie Arnt starring in the attack with three safeties.

Pete Ritchie, former Oakland catcher, joined the Blues Sunday and hit two singles.

BLUES WIN 16TH GAME

The San Mateo Blues rade it sixteen straight last Sunday when they defeated the Alameda Elks at San Mateo by the score of 8 to 3. Camozzi was the star of the game, not only from the pitching but from the batting standpoint. He allowed but five scattered hits, struck out nine of the hard-hitting Elks and got four hits himself out of four times at the plate, a home run and three singles.

The Blues now have a strangle hold on the Spalding trophy and the championship of Northern California, having lost only one game in the race for the former, and that to Napa during the early part of the season.
