

NINTH INNING RALLY GIVES OUR BOYS GAME

Explode Seven Hits for Five Runs and Victory, 6-5—In Fifth Place Tie.

By Ralph H. White.

Going into the final season four runs to the bad, Our Boys staged one of those last minute rallies you sometimes read about, but seldom see, and pulled yesterday's contest with the Rapids out of the fire, 6 to 5.

Jack Schulte started the bombardment of Slapnicka, driving safely over second with one out. Kohls followed suit, but those left field as his target. Krehmeyer kept it up with a single to center. Schulte crossing. On Pruess's throw to the plate Kohls and Krehmeyer both advanced when the ball escaped Slapnicka, who elected to stop it. O'Berta came through with a single, putting Louie and "Dutch" across. Tom Casey, with a single and double at the ready to his credit, then busted another two-bagger to deep left. O'Berta going over with the leading marker, Camozzi, who had relieved Kerr in the third, cracked a single to center. Casey being stopped at third. Collins popped out, but "Shorty" Dee picked one, his third of the fracas, over second. Casey breezing in with the counter that gave the locals victory and a tie with Boy's band for fifth place.

Seven hits, only a double, for just enough rallies to win. Oh, boys, it was wonderful!

Kerr Gets His

Said timely and vicious assault was made necessary by some severe stick work by the foe in the earlier innings at Kerr's expense. To make it short, George lashed less than three rounds, giving way to Camozzi in the third. The southpaw stopped them dead, striking out five of the first eight batters to face him. Two he got in the third with a runner at the first station. That's rescue hurling if there ever was any.

It was Casey and Dee who also figured in the scoring of our first run, the former cracking his first double to left in the last half of the third, and registering an Dee's single to center with two gone.

Kerr got off to a bad start, walking Leid first to face him. Evers singled to right and Hardgrove sacrificed his mates along. Pruess failed to punish the spherer, but Jenkins, star holding third sacker, smote to right. Leid and Evers scampering to the coveted goal. Hits by Evers, Hardgrove, Pruess and our old friend Jenkins with nary an out sandwiched in netted the visitors their other brace of runs in the third. It was at this stage that Camozzi came on and blocked all avenues to the home plate. Score:

THE BROWN DERBY

Old Charley Brown, around the town Is running like a deer; His foes he greets with frigid frown, He won't give them a cheer; He vows he won't bring up the rear, That old boy now runs wild and freer.

Tom Casey's training like a Turk, Which shows that Tom is fond of work; He says his foes he'll leave behind And run that race like wintry wind, The Derby he says is in his hat, So all we sez is that is that.

Camozzi's getting down to weight, The Derby favorite he now does rate; He says he'll win that race or bust; He won't be last, he must be "fust," Two hundred pounds he claim's no load, With that light weight he'll burn the road.

Ernie Ward, the bookie, won't say who'll win; He says on Brown he'll bet a fin, But thinks ole Casey's in the bin. But on him he will place no "tin." Brown, he thinks, will surely "show," And at the quarter pole will blow.

This race is on the up-and-up, They're running for the Derby cup; The winner's bound to fill it full With something mild and soft and cool.

No wine will soil the Derby cup; With 3 point 2 they'll fill 'er up.

My old friend R. D. McElroy, who is one of the best fellows in the land writes me that 2.65 per cent beer is intoxicating in Wichita, Kans. That, however, is not a fair test. What does Kansas know about beer?

IN KANSAS
Oh they want their lager mild
In Kansas,
Three percent would make 'em wild
In Kansas.
If your thirst you would abate,
In the good old Sunflower state,
You'll be pinched as sure as fate,
In Kansas.

Camozzi Ready For Shulken 9 At Local Park

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1933

With Gene Camozzi, a probable starter for the Texaco team in their game tomorrow against Mickey Shader's Shulken club at city park, local fans expect to see a slashing game as Shader has some of the best semi-pros in the bay district in his line-up. Ed Stutz, San Francisco Seals pitcher, will be on the mound for the visitors, and he will be backed up by a lot of snappy and fast young ball players.

Ted Pillette, Missions star hurler, will be on the mound for the Estes team, and if he gets in trouble, Gene Camozzi has promised to be out there to help him out. Camozzi is a great stick-smith and Estes feels that the presence of Gene in the game will help the morale of the team.

Estes has his mind set on winning tomorrow's game as a victory for the Texaco boys over the Shulken team would add to the prestige of the Texacans. The game will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

BATTING AVERAGES

Good old "Gene" Camozzi, sparring partner of Tom Casey in the famous Brown Derby, is leading the big parade in batting for San Mateo. He hasn't been up there very often, but when he does get up he knows that a bat is not intended for a potato masher and he whangs that old pill from here to there. He's no three-point-two percent batter. The "Dreadnaught of the Mound" is whamming the old apple for an even .600 and that's batting in any man's league, even the League of Nations.

And then there's a boy named Prout, who has been advertised far and wide as a hitter more delicate and fragile than a piece of Dresden china. Well maybe the lad didn't know how to hit before Justin Fitzgerald devoted a little time to instructing him, but look at him now, or rather look at that average of his! He's only hitting .429, and if that's weak hitting then Emma Boole is an ardent anti-prohibitionist and Billy Sunday is president of the barboys' union. Keane, Switzer and Haller also are in the exclusive 300 class, which is to baseball the same as owning a box at the horse show, even if you aren't a jockey.

The official batting averages for the four games played in the California State league thus far are:

Gene Camozzi Goes in as Relief Hurler, Scores Winning Run and Gets Credit for Victory

Walter Lister's high-class pitching went for naught yesterday when his infielders booted the ball all over the lot, permitting San Mateo to register four runs in a rally that conquered the Y. M. I. of San Francisco, 5 to 4.

Gene Camozzi, who succeeded Anfinson on the mound for the Blues, not only got credit for the victory, but added the San Mateo cause with a single in the ninth and scored the winning run when Owens singled into right field.
