SAN MATEO BLUES SCORE TRIUMPH

Rally in Ninth to Nose Out California Poultry, 6 to 5; Camozzi Smashes Out Homer

The final inning of yesterday's game at San Mateo supplied the followers of the contending club with plenty of thrills. Going into the last session, the visitors had a one-run lead which they increased to four. A walk to Barry, singles by Burns and Roddy and a double by Del Chiaro chased over three tallies and a California Poultry victory appeared in the offing. San Mateo finally won 6 to 5. Opening the Blues' last stand, Gene Camozzi homed. Bertram was hit by a pitched ball and Macon followed with a single. Malloy at this time was rebuffed by Briggs who immediately populated the bags by walking Anti, Johnson and McKnow were thrown out victims.
 Walking Joe Collins forced in Bertram and Danny Collins' single registered Macon and Anti to tie the score. Simpson walked to again fill the sacks and when Camozzi was hit by a pitched ball Briggs crossed the plate with the winning run.

ENGLE WEAKENS IN SEVENTH INNING AND CATS WIN

Aberdeen trimmed the Giants 7 to 4 yesterday when Geo. Engle lost his grip in the seventh and passed three men, who were followed up with two hits and a sacrifice fly that scored them. At all other stages the Seattle veteran twirler was master of all situations.

Silcott was the star of the day, getting four hits in five times up, and three of these brought in runs. Silcott seems to have it in for Murphy, for again today, as in the opening game, he snatched a hot liner from Murphy's bat off the left field fence, robbing the third sacker of what looked like a safe hit. In one of the best games ever witnessed on the St. Mary's campus, Kenesha's Seals triumphed over the St. Mary's team, 1-0. Gene Camozzi and Willie Ludolph were the opposing twirlers, and due credit must be given both pitchers, as their work on the mound was sensational. Camozzi allowed five hits and whiffed thirteen, while Ludolph whiffed three hits and sent six back to the bench. It was in the fourth inning that the Seals scored their lone tally. Fossena singled, stole second and scored on Desmond's long single to left center. Walter Mills is anxious to secure a return game with the locals, as he was very much impressed by their showing against the Collegians.

Thompson attempted to pull a swinging bunt in the fifth, but Camozzi, with a small one-handed pickup, got the slugger at bat.

The bloomers threatened in the second, filling the bases on three consecutive walk-ups, but Camozzi was there in the pinch. Snyder, Sykes and Lennahan connected, putting three on. Johnson popped out to Dee Zahnera whiffed and Kellerman left to O'Bertra.

Stanford-Olympic Game Is 5-5 Tie

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 2.—A combination of rain and darkness prevented a decisive score in the Stanford-Olympic Club game yesterday that was called in the ninth inning. All score: R. E. E. Stanford.....5 11 3

Those Aberdeen Black Cats showed their claws early and often yesterday at Natatorium park and gave the Indians a thorough drubbing. When they had finished their pranks the score was 13 to 2 and the tribesmen retreated to their tepee bewildered by the ring of solid base clouts.
 It was distinctly an Aberdeen day. The players from the Gray's Harbor city had on their batting togs and hit the ball hard in all but three innings. Included in their 15 safeties only three of which were of the scratch variety, were two amusing triples which went almost to the right field fence and three long doubles. All the extra base knocks came in the first four innings.

Battiste Soon Retires.
 Chief Battiste started for the Indians and Downey got him in the hole immediately by dropping Altschul's high fly to left. A single, an error by Battiste and a double scored three runs. Battiste walked two, filling the bases. Williams waited no longer, sending "Sad Slim" Smith to the rescue. Sad allowed one more run during the inning.

Smith Hit Hard.
 Smith appeared to have everything. His fast one was breaking well, but those Black Cats were simply not to be denied. They hit him to all corners in three days. He was wild, but he broke in the fifth. He got way for three innings, not allowing a hit, but in the eighth he was found for five singles and these with a base on balls and a hit batsman scored five runs.

Camozzi Wild but Effective.
 Camozzi, the Aberdeen southpaw, turned the Indians for the second time in three days. He was wild, but effective and was accorded sensational support. The teams will meet again Wednesday.

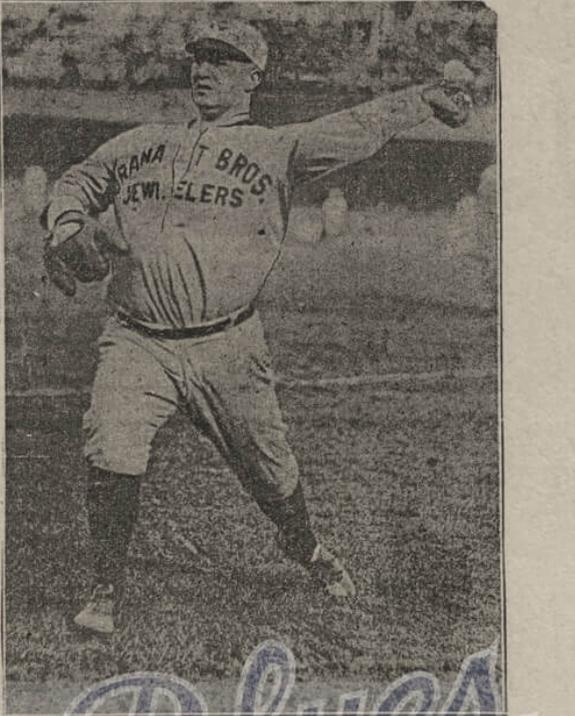

The Box Score.

NOTES OF THE GAME.
 Camozzi walked eight, but not one of them scored.
 The St. Dominics easily defeated Kenesha's Seals, 1-0. The features being the steady pitching of Camozzi and the sensational fielding of second baseman McKnew of the Seals.

 Kenesha.....2 8 4
 Batteries—Camozzi and O'Neill; Hardy and Fossena.

St. Mary's Sluggers Blanked by Camozzi

The Kenesha Seals defeated the St. Mary's baseball team yesterday by a score of 1 to 0 on the St. Mary's diamond. Willie Ludolph hurried for the "owners" and Gene Camozzi held the mound for the winners. The latter struck out 13 men and Ludolph whiffed 6.
 The St. Dominics easily defeated Kenesha's Seals, 1-0. The features being the steady pitching of Camozzi and the sensational fielding of second baseman McKnew of the Seals.

ONE OF THE BEST—That's what the Midwinter league fans say of little Gene Camozzi, Granats' southpaw pitcher. Gene is about as broad as he is tall and he has "something on it" all the time, hitters who oppose him have found. He is the property of the Terre Haute club.

Banner Diamond Attraction on Sunday is Newbauer-Granat Contest

TOMORROW night might mean the making or breaking of some of the teams in the San Francisco Mid-Winter League, as three of the teams can be eliminated from the possibility of winning their league's championship. The J. H. Newbauer and the Kenesha Seals in the American League and the Levi Strauss aggregation on the National Division.
 No doubt the banner attraction of the day will be the J. H. Newbauer-Granat Bros. contest with a battle between the two left handers, Roy Hillis for the Grocers and Gene Camozzi for the Jewellers. Although the J. H. N. is the leading American Division, the boys playing under Frank Sears look to have the strongest aggregation and with Camozzi will likely down the league leaders. No matter what the result, the contest will be one of the best of the season.

CRISTALS 4, SAN MATEO 2
