find it difficult beating the Shriners.

The Blues defeated the By Sunday in the third game of their series by the score of 7 to 0. Gene Brat at the Brat at his mercy throughout. Gene is improving with age.

Danny Tapson, former Polytechelle High School athlete and San Francisco Winter League product, is playing second base for the Williamsport club of the New York-Pennsylvania League in nifty style. Danny expects to come back to San Francisco this winter. He has been in the east ever since leaving here

RAH FOR COMOZZI

Gene Camozzi finished pitching eighteen scoreless innings against burlingame last Sunday when the San Mateo Blues shut out the Bees. 6 to 0. The San Mateo southpaw allowed four hits, only two balls going to the outside.

With the victory San Mateo assumed the lead in the annual inter-city series, two games to one. The fourth game will be played June 26 in San Mateo.

Dick Arleit went the entire route for the Bees. Poor support was directly responsible for the defeat.

We wonder if we are the only ones that have noticed the way Genial Gene Camozzi has come back. Year before last he was tossing pretty good ball and then he seemed to take a slump last year, but this season he is better than he has been for the past couple of years. We just wonder whether he has had the old soup bone inoculated with some of the Gibson glands. At any rate for the past three games he has been pitching the kind of ball that brought him fame in the long ago.

Gene Camozzi, veteran southpaw hurler with the San Mateo Blues, is going to try an iron man stunt over the coming holidays. At San Mateo Sunday, he will be in the box against Vallejo, while in a return game Monday, Labor Dayyat Vallejohe will work again. As Gene is getting along in years, he may find the feat difficult to accomplish.

SAN MATEO DEFEATS

SAN MATEO DEFEATS
STOCKTON NINE, 4.
The San Mateo Blues, playing er orless ball behind Johnny Vierr and Gene Camozzi, scored a 4 to victory over Jim Russell's Stocktonine to open the California Stat League season yesterday at Sa Mateo.
Doing all their scoring in the arly innings, the Blues went inthe ninth enjoying a four-run lead which was cut down by the visitor when Johnny Vierra suddenly los control, giving way to Camozzi winished filling the bases. Felker sacrifice fly scored Battalana; Ma laspino singled to right, countin McGeorge and Percival, but Malaspino was cut down going to second the throwin for the final out.
Stockton also played an errories game, and looked like a real bal club in action.
