DUNNS TAKE TILT FROM DARRINGERS

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Aug. 11.—Kellerman's triple to center in the eleventh with Main on base gave the champions the opening clash of the series here today 3 to 2. Terre Haute outthrew the locals but lacked ability to bunch their blows. Camozzi was strong and kept the locals guessing until Kellerman's crash.

Change in the Schedule Brings Leaders Together

BY TOM LAIRD.

IN FIRST place and playing better ball every week, the Mayrose Butter pastimers regard next Sunday's game as the only one they must win to cop the w. k. pennant, as they figure their other games as good as over already.

Acting on the suggestion of Charley Gallagher, secretary of the league and manager of the I. X. L. team, the directors changed the schedule of Sunday's games. Instead of playing the Union Iron Works team, as scheduled, the Mayrose team will clash with the Granat Bros. They lost the lead last Sunday, but are considered one of the strongest aggregations in the league.

The change in schedule brings together the Union Iron Works and Sperry Flour teams in the 10:30 game, and the Kenecally Seals and I. X. L. teams in the 12 o'clock game, following which the Mayrose and Granat teams will get into action.

Camozzi vs. Manouk

Gene Camozzi, who twirled a scoreless tie against the Sperry Flour team in his last game, will occupy the mound for the Granat Bros. Sunday, opposing Herb Manouk. The latter has rounded into fine form and should turn up one of his real good games Sunday.

Gene Lavagnino, who defeated the Kenecally Seals last Sunday, will do relief work for the Mayrose team if necessary, with Ad Pierotti acting in the same capacity for the Granats.

NOE VALLEY 6, WALTERS 4

Noe Valley yesterday defeated the D. & N. E. Walters at Southside playgrounds by a score of 6-4. The pitching of Pat Olson and the timely hitting of Volosing, Lane, Gordon, San Dwyer and Comozzi were the features of the game. The score:

Following all the alleged comedy of the first contest, the second game was a ball game from start to finish. It might be that what Ross Harriott, treasurer of the Baseball Fans' Association, told the Islanders about not receiving money if they did not play, had some effect on the game. Umpire Duckworth, who is to have charge of the city championship series, umpired the second contest. His work was creditable.

Camozzi started off fast in the second and by striking out five of the first nine men that faced him. He could not keep up that fast pace, however, and the Islanders took the lead in the fourth when Dixon, Glockson and Dennis singled in succession.

FEDERALS TAKE OUTLAWS IN T. CALL

By A. H. Russo.
 The North Beach Feds, by walloping the ball hard at the right times, easily from the North Beach Outlaws by a score of 8 to 3. McCluskey of the Feds cracked out a homer, double, a single in four times at bat.

The North Beach Feds, at present heading the race for The Call trophy, have won 12 out of 13 games since the club was organized this season. Pitcher Camozzi has been instrumental in the success of the team, his work all along being of a high order. In the 13 games he has pitched, he has allowed but a total of 54 hits and has averaged nine strikeouts every game.
